STATEMENT OF ATTAINMENT Unique Student Identifier (USI) number.

From 1 January 2015 students enrolling in nationally recognised training in Australia will need a Unique Student Identifier (USI). The USI is a form of file number that will link students to their training records which are held in the national training collection.

Training organisations must ensure that they have recorded a valid USI for each student when they report on training activities or issue an AQF certification document, such as a statement of attainment.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION. Please read and complete as directed below.

- ➤ If you do not have a Unique Student Identifier (USI) the QRA cannot issue you a Statement of Attainment for the course.
- > If you already have a USI, you can provide your USI and the QRA will verify or

You can complete the required information and give QRA permission to create a USI on your behalf.
